ADVANCED TRAINING TOPICS

WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING - PROFESSIONALS WHO HAVEN'T QUITE MADE THE PARADIGM SHIFT

Successful collaboration requires a significant change in how the professionals conduct themselves during the divorce process. We have all experienced the professional who has not made the "paradigm shift". This presentation describes these "paradigm slips", examines the underlying reasons why these "slips" occur and offers solutions and resources. A fun, experiential role play with debrief follows the presentation.
½ Day

FINANCE - NOT JUST AN EXCEL SPREADSHEET!

Valuable Financial Neutrals go beyond document collection, cataloging and calculation functions in helping clients arrive at acceptable financial solutions. Learn how to provide maximum value as a Financial Neutral to your clients and the Collaborative Team. Identify and develop strategies and language to defuse financially related emotional issues and enable resolution and progress towards financial independence. Learn to empower spouses to think through and design solutions which both sides can accept. Develop strategies to address difficult financial situations in which there are no easy answers.
